Rochester, Indiana

OFFICIAL COLORING BOOK PROGRAM

DEAR FELLOW CITIZENS:

The purpose of the ROUND BARN FESTIVAL is to promote Fulton County. We wish to say THANK YOU to the folks who spent time and talent in the planning of this, the twenty-first annual Round Barn Festival.

The members of the Executive Committee who serve in the spirit of friendship and pride wish to thankfully acknowledge the fine cooperation of the advertisers and supporters of the pages of this coloring book.

You would be wise to do business with these people of friendship who share our pride in this community.

THANK YOU!

THE COMMITTEE:

Frances Pfeifer, President
Esther Smith, Vice-president
Violet Stewart, Secretary-Treasurer
Myrt Hood
Dick Smith
Larry Stewart

Fulton County Historical Society

Fulton County Museum & Round Barn, located 3 miles north of Rochester on Hwy 17-31, 31, open Mon.-Sat. 9 a.m.-4 p.m.

Round Barn built in 1924 for Bert Swails by C.A. Kenney & Sons, Rochester. Owned by Harold Partridge 1972-75, owned by Larry Paxton 1975-1980. Damaged by tornado Sept. 1, 1980. The barn was given by Paxton to Fulton County Historical Society to save and reconstruct inside the museum. Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana loaned $40,000 for the project. A grant in excess $60,000 began in June 1995, as the loan must be repaid by June 1998 so the money can be lent to another preservation project. Contributions over $50 memorialized with plaques in the barn.

Dedication of round barn June 22, 561 3 p.m. Rent Williamson, president of Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana will present the Sandy Stevens Memorial Award for outstanding projects in preservation.
